DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
  - I. Claims 1-16 and 18, drawn to a method of treating female sexual dysfunction comprising administering  $\alpha_{1A}$  and/or  $\alpha_{1L}$  adrenergic receptor antagonists, classified in class 514, subclass 266.2.
  - II. Claim 17, drawn to a method of screening for compounds useful for treating female sexual dysfunction, classified in class 435, subclass 4.

Note: The term " $\alpha_{1A}$  and/or  $\alpha_{1L}$  adrenergic receptor antagonists" encompasses many different compounds with different classifications. For the sake of convenience, the classification of Group I is based solely on the fact that the first claim drawn to any specific  $\alpha_{1A}$  and/or  $\alpha_{1L}$  adrenergic receptor antagonists falls within the identified classification. It is noted, however, that many different classifications are encompassed by Group I.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

2. Inventions I and II are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different designs, modes of operation, and effects (MPEP § 802.01 and § 806.06). In the instant case, the different inventions are distinct methods with different designs, modes of operation, and effects. Group I is drawn to a method of treating female sexual dysfunction which comprises administering  $\alpha_{1A}$  and/or  $\alpha_{1L}$  adrenergic receptor antagonists to patients. The effect of the method is to treat the sexual dysfunction. Group II is drawn to a method of screening for compounds that are  $\alpha_{1A}$  and/or  $\alpha_{1L}$  adrenergic receptor antagonists. The effect of the method is to identify compounds with certain pharmacological activity. Thus, the instantly claimed methods have different designs, modes of operation, and effects.

3. Because these inventions are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and there would be a serious burden on the examiner if restriction is not required because the inventions require a different field of search (see MPEP § 808.02), restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper. Specifically, because the methods have different steps, and because methods of treatment and methods of screening compounds have different statuses in the art, different searches are required for the Groups, which presents a substantial burden to the Office.

4. This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species: The various of species of  $\alpha_{1A}$  and/or  $\alpha_{1L}$  adrenergic receptor antagonists in claims 10-13. The species are independent or distinct because they are different chemical compounds with different structures, chemical and physical properties, bioavailabilities, receptor affinities, and pharmacokinetic profiles. Further, because the species represent many different classes of molecules, multiple searches are required for the various species

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, claims 1-9, 14-16, and 18 are generic.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which depend from or otherwise require all the limitations of an allowable generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

5. Because the restriction/election requirement is complex, a telephone call to applicant's agent to request an oral election was not made. See MPEP § 812.01.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C.103(a) of the other invention.

6. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Kevin Capps whose telephone number is (571) 272-8646. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday-Friday, 7:30am-5pm.

If attempts to reach the examiner by telephone are unsuccessful, the examiner's supervisor, Sreenivasan Padmanabhan can be reached on (571) 272-0629. The fax phone number for the organization where this application or proceeding is assigned is 571-273-8300.
